AMUSEMENTS.

The Bostonians Monday.

The Grand Opera House has a notable offering for next week in the famous Bostonians. This well-known organization makes its reappearance in Indianapolis after an absence of four years in a repertory of standard company operas. Monday evening Victor Herbert and Francis Nelson's latest opera, "Prince Ananias," which had a distinguished engagement of eight weeks at the Broadway Theatre, New York, last fall, will be sung by the best talent of the company. The cast includes: Victor Herbert, as Prince Ananias; Francis Nelson, as Prince Ananias; and a large number of other talented artists. The opera is a masterpiece of modern music and drama, and is sure to be a great success.

"Tribby" Now in the Courts.

NEW YORK, April 12.—In the United States Circuit Court, to-day, Judge Lacombe granted a temporary injunction to Harper Brothers and A. M. Palmer, restraining Nellie G. Anthony from producing her monologue from "Tribby," at the Eden Musee. Harper Brothers own the copyright for "Tribby" in the city of New York, and they have secured the rights to A. M. Palmer, who will produce the play at the Garden Theatre on Monday. On Friday the lawyers appeared before Judge Lacombe and asked that a permanent injunction be granted.

Notes of the Stage.

Joe Kenney, in advance of James J. Corbett, is coming next Thursday to the Grand. Corbett and his company have been in the city for some time, and are expected to be a great success. Joe Kenney is a well-known actor, and his performance is sure to be a great success.

BASEBALL AND POLICE

THEY MAY PLAY SOMEWHAT AT THE NEW BALL PARK TO-MORROW.

Terre Haute Again Easy Victims for the Hoosiers, with a Score of 16 to 7—Cleveland To-Day.

Sunday baseball is still an uncertainty. Mr. Watkins said last night that he would not be ready until to-day to make any positive announcement of a game for to-morrow. At the same time, he talked as if it was really settled that the game would be played to-morrow.

It has been stated by some unknown person that Justice Lockman had agreed to attend the game and allow his constable to arrest the players, who immediately would be placed under bond and allowed to proceed with the game. Mr. Lockman denies the statement in toto. Manager Ella Parrett, daughter of Rev. John W. Parrett, who was in the city last evening at the beautiful residence of the bride's parents, Rev. T. Meredith, of the M. E. Church, officiated.

BROCKWAY-TENBROOK.

HALL-PARRETT.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NEWPORT, Ind., April 12.—M. L. Hall, a prominent physician of this place, and Miss Ella Parrett, daughter of Rev. John W. Parrett, were quietly married last evening at the beautiful residence of the bride's parents, Rev. T. Meredith, of the M. E. Church, officiated.

NYE NOT A CANDIDATE.

Doesn't Think His Name Will Be Before Next State Convention.

Lieutenant Governor Mortimer Nye, of LaPorte, is at the Grand. He says he is in town on private legal business, and that there is no politics in his mind now. "Will you be a candidate before the next State convention?" was asked of him. "No," he said, "I think not," and he smiled knowingly.

THE PITCHER WAS AMUSING.

Terre Haute Furnishes Entertainment for the Hoosiers.

The game of baseball yesterday afternoon between Indianapolis and Terre Haute was marked by the heavy hitting of the home team and much talk between players. The home team won with a score of 16 to 7. After the third inning, the visitors seemed to take delight in making the defeat to the Terre Haute men all the more galling. Horton, who pitched for the visitors, was in constant dispute with the umpire regarding the latter's judgment on balls and strikes. Horton lost his temper several times and the home players did not help him. Horton was so angry they all began talking to him at once and the few folks in the bleachers who had come to see the game, withdrew from the game because of a sore arm and hands went to third and fourth base. White pitched for the visitors, and both short and third, Walter's batting and fielding were excellent. He hit at the bat seven times and reached first six times, but managed to get out in the eighth inning. He made the game interesting by pitching an unusual play, signed by Manager Watkins, played second base for the visitors. He made four errors, but it is to be remembered that it was his first game this season. He pitched well, and the game was a good one for the visitors.

THE VERDICT SET ASIDE.

Mr. Henry Will Not Be Molested $2,000 for His Remarks.

James R. Henry, cashier of the State Bank, received word yesterday that the Owen county court, Judge Hadley presiding, had set aside the verdict against him for libel and had granted him a new trial. The suit was brought by Mary R. Moberly, of Gosport, for alleged libel and on trial the jury returned a verdict against Henry, and the court, however, is raising around the woman and it was for this that she sued.

TOO SLOW AN INQUIRY

GAS INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE HAS DONE LITTLE IN SIX WEEKS.

Failure to Meet Last Night—President Cooper Came Down to See About It.

There was considerable indignation in the neighborhood of the Mayor's office last evening, because the gas investigating committee did not meet. President Cooper, of the Council; Councilman Allen, of the committee, and Mr. B. Wilson, of the Commercial Club committee, were not present. Mr. Cooper had heard that the committee was not getting along very rapidly in their work and he called to see what was the matter. He also heard that a certain member of the committee had been absent from the meetings and he came prepared to appoint another councilman in his stead. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Allen had not been notified that the meeting of the gas committee had been postponed and they wanted to know by whose authority it was done.

WATER POLO CONTEST

CHICAGO DEFEATED BY NEW YORK IN THE DECIDING MATCH.

The Game Enlivened by Two Bows and Two Bloody Noses—Result of the Running Races.

NEW YORK, April 12.—It was generally expected to-night that the meeting of the Chicago A. C. team with the New York A. C. representatives would prove to be a very interesting and game battle for the championship of America at water polo. Last night, at their first meeting, the home team came out ahead, 4 to 1. The teams lined up as follows:

NEW YORK A. C. Positions. Chicago A. C. W. G. Douglas. Right forward. S. H. Hunt. W. F. Dickey. Left forward. B. N. Smith. W. F. Dickey. Center rush. G. W. Thorne. M. Murray. Quarter back. W. H. Thompson. C. J. Kinter. Goal. L. E. Burr. Chicago A. C. Positions. Chicago A. C. W. G. Douglas. Right forward. S. H. Hunt. W. F. Dickey. Left forward. B. N. Smith. W. F. Dickey. Center rush. G. W. Thorne. M. Murray. Quarter back. W. H. Thompson. C. J. Kinter. Goal. L. E. Burr.

Precisely at 8:21 p. m. referee Dr. W. E. Davis drew the ball in the water and dropped it into the water with a loud splash and W. F. Dickey grabbed the ball, just as the Chicago captain by about four inches. Dickey passed it quick to Murray, and they worked it cleverly with the ball. The Chicago captain by about four inches. Dickey passed it quick to Murray, and they worked it cleverly with the ball.

Two Additional Officers Appointed—Higher Ranking Than White Men—Counselman Puryear was the spokesman of a delegation of about twenty colored citizens, who called at the office of the Board of Safety yesterday morning, to protest against the removal of Mr. Tyler as a patrolman, in preference of being appointed. The board appointed Tyler, thinking he was a white man, and then learning he was colored, prepared to dismiss him for the reason that he was not a white man. The colored patrolmen, the delegation insisted that he be retained, and said that the board should be made up of white men, and that the board should be made up of white men, and that the board should be made up of white men.
